Chairperson's Message

CA A.K Shyamala Shenoy Chairperson Mangalore Branch of SIRC of ICAI

Dear Members,

The first month of 2015 was a fulfilling one for me personally. On 3rd January, I shared the stage with Mrs. Nirmala Sitharaman, Hon'ble minister for Commerce and Industry as part of a program organised by MIND. I also attended the grandly organised International Conference in Bangalore on 30th and 31st January. For the first time in my life, I saw a live music show. The electrifying performance of bollywood singer Ms. Sunidhi Chauhan still lingers in my mind.

The activities of the branch were no less electrifying. President CA K Raghu and SIRC Chairman CA Rajarajeshwaran who had come to Udupi were invited to visit our branch. Though there was not enough time to arrange, nevertheless, we had a beautiful program on 5th January with members and past chairmen. The very educative Tax Awareness Program organised that day went on upto 8.30 pm, the first such instance at Padil.

On 11th and 18th of January Republic Day Cup Cricket matches were held by SICASA at Bondel Grounds. 24 teams participated. On 29th January SICASA conducted a study circle meeting- Topic Foreign exchange markets and hedging- presented by jason Dsouza and Chairperson Mr.Vinay Bhat, Chief Manager, Karnataka Bank Ltd.

On Republic Day, we hoisted the tricolour at Padil and a small garden was set two days later. On 17th January, a unique program for girl students was organised by SICASA to discuss gender discrimination at work place. Two GMCS batches and one Orientation batch was started this month. SIRC member CA Aruloli inaugurated a 6 day Concurrent Audit course for members on 24th January.

Best Wishes.

CA. A K Shyamala Shenoy

A very successful partner is a big six firm had a peculiar habit. He will go to his desk open a locked drawer, look inside, lock the drawer again, and start his work. His subordinates knew that he hid the secret of his success in the drawer, they waited for the opportunity. One day when the partner had gone out of the city, the juniors decided to make a break. They broke into the drawer, breathlessly, and looked inside. There was one small piece of paper inside - it said - "left is debit and right is credit."
